Dino!?

Sithrah's warnings to stay put still echo in her mind, but Vonna can't help herself. She grits her teeth and peers over the edge, expecting to find the worst.

Had Dino fallen over the edge? Or worse, she wondered... had something taken him?

And where was Simon?

But only weebles below. The morning sun driving the last of them back into the safety of the sand.

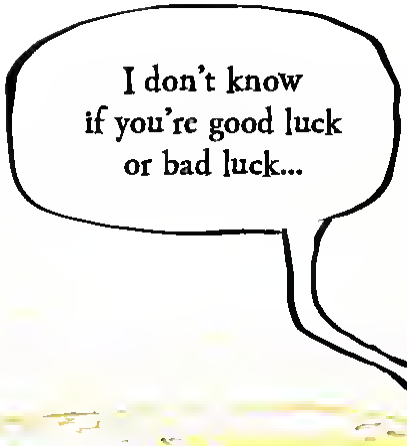
Overcome with emotion, she whispers, "I'm sorry I dragged everyone into this, it's all my fault--"



...but I can't imagine that if it'd just been me alone out here in the middle of a rainstorm, I'd have hit the only rock island for a thousand miles.

Let alone survive the night!

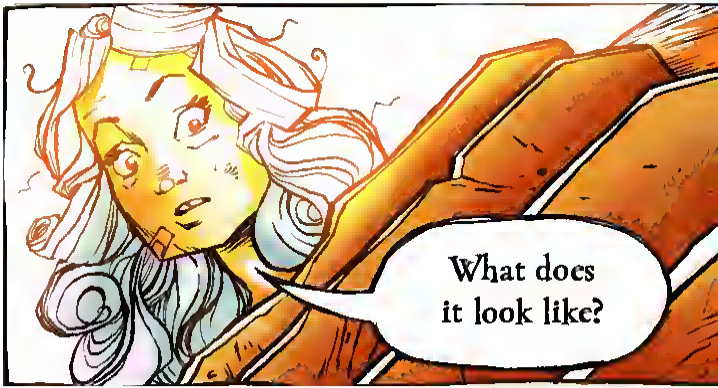
>whew< I thought this thing was junk when we took it, but it's built like a tank.



It's a rubber hose about this long.

You mean kind of like that?

Quick, don't let that weeble take it!

Shhhhffff

Crap-steak!

Wha... I...
I got it!
